TRAGEDY

Stirs Madisonville—Roland Rich Puts Bullet in Wife's Brain—Over Domestic Troubles.

Madisonville, Ky., Aug. 7.—One of the most shocking and cold-blooded tragedies that has ever occurred in Madisonville and Hopkins county took place last night when Roland Rich shot and almost instantly killed his wife, Dora, aged 30 years, over domestic troubles.

The woman was shot in the left jaw, the bullet passing through her head. She lived about ten minutes, but was unconscious from the time she was shot. Rich to all appearances determined to kill his wife, for he shot her twice, the other shot taking effect in her arm. She did not make any outcry after the first shot.

It is said that Rich and his wife had not on the best of terms. Finally it is said she told him she would leave him. It is said Rich had been drinking.

Lorene Ashby, the eleven-year-old daughter of the murdered woman, rushed into the hall after Rich, and it is said he tried to shoot the girl but was prevented from doing so. Rich begged local officers to protect him while taking him to jail and requested them to take him out of town. The officers promised to protect him as far as it was in their power. The crime has stirred the city and county, and there is widespread indignation over the tragedy.

WARNING.

It is a violation of the City Ordinance to pass balls on any street or alley within the city. There is danger of striking passing citizens, and hereafter those passing balls on streets or alleys will be prosecuted.

FAMILIES HOLD REUNION.

Sturgis, Ky., July 27.—A reunion of the Wallace and Holt families was held at the lovely country home of Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Wallace Saturday. This proved to be one of the most enjoyed of these annual events. A sumptuous picnic dinner was served on the spacious lawn. Nearly a hundred relatives and a few friends enjoyed the hospitality of these good people, and it is to be hoped Mr. and Mrs. Wallace, while having already passed the half century milestone, may yet enjoy many such happy gatherings of friends and loved ones.

For the first time in the 31 years the Record-Press has fought the "good fight" in the interest of the people of Marion and Crittenden county, it goes to its thousands of readers as a Semi-Weekly. We are making this change much sooner than was expected and much sooner than our readers expected. That they will appreciate our efforts to give them the best twice-a-week paper in Kentucky we are sure. While the paper will be but half the size of the weekly, it will contain no patent, or plate matter and come to your houses twice in each week, Tuesday and Friday mornings.

That Marion is one of the best towns and Crittenden one of the richest mineral counties in Kentucky, forced us to the conclusion that she must needs have one of the best papers in the state, consequently we are before you and to stay.

The Editorial columns of the Record-Press will be used in the best interest of people of Marion, and the neighboring towns and counties. We are against the saloon evil and do the very best to help banish it from the state. If we are forced to give the evil deer —ll, we shall do so in a gentlemanly way. Nothing will even be said with the intention of wounding the feelings of any one, but mind you, the law-breaker, circumvented by the influence of the rich, who does what he does with the knowledge and belief that his position in life will save him, will not look one whit different to us than the man of low estate. But we want clean interesting news and will, God helping us, fill every available space with such.

Now since we go to the trouble and expense to give to you a live, twice-a-week, come to our aid with your renewals. If you do not take it do so at once, and induce your neighbor to follow your example and you will be a prominent factor in making the paper second to none. There will be no change in price. One dollar to all and in advance. Any widow in the county who is not able to pay for the paper, can have it free by making the fact known to the editor, which request will be kept private.

Calmes, down at Marion, has one of the most prosperous-looking papers in the Penuryrile. He has already convinced the merchants that the way to stir up new business and to keep the old business at home is to advertise. And they are doing it. The merchants are using full pages with Calmes, which is not had for Marion.—Henderson Journal.

Thank you Bro. Harris. This is a compliment from home and to the merchants of Marion as well as myself. Having been treated so courteously by you while in your employ, and realizing the value and influence of your paper throughout the Second Congressional District as well as the greater portion of the First, such a compliment to myself as well as the people who are standing by me, is worth more than money. The advertising age is on—the man or firm that advertises what he has over shadows the man or firm ignoring the use of printers' ink. The merchants here, one after another came to me with an honest confession as to the amount of good results from their ads, and when they do this I feel doubly paid for my effort to please them. These ads are bringing people to Marion that have not been coming here. For instance, a two horse buggy, made in your city, a wagon, and lot of nice furniture was sold last week to people 25 miles from Marion, who would likely have gone elsewhere. The merchants of Marion are an enterprising, thrifty lot of thorough business gentlemen and are keeping a high class line they are not afraid nor ashamed to advertise. A newspaper backed by such men will soon save the country from the Sear & Roebuck class of mail order houses.

IMPROVEMENTS.

A stroll down Bellville Street a few days ago opened our eyes to the spirit of improvement pervading the citizens on both sides all the way from Main Street to the I. C. railroad. J. B. Hubbard, Cashier of The Farmers' Bank, has just completed a nice concrete pavement in front of his nice home, as well as to it from the front. T. J. Yandell Cashier of the Marion Bank is also beautifying his home by adding rooms in front and raising on a solid brick foundation.

J. M. McChesney the popular merchant on this street, has built a new addition to his grocery and feed store.

Mrs. E. M. Frisbie is having her nice home repainted and otherwise improved.

J. N. Boston, the well known lumber yard man has just finished some tasty improvements to his splendid home, and as a whole, the people on this street are bestirring themselves that they may outshine their neighbors.

We respectfully call attention to the note of warning to violators of the Sunday ordinance from our worthy mayor. Surely, as God's goodness and mercy has sustained you thus far you need His Day for rest, that you may be the better prepared for the duties of the coming week. If it be that your neighbor, from his own negligence, is the cause of you opening your store, refuse him and he will respect you the more for it. You need not fear losing trade by it, as a business with God in it never fails.

The Crittenden Record-Press last issue contained five whole page ads. of different firms as the city of Marion. Live merchants like those will bring Marion in the front ranks and people looking for a location will always turn to a town that shows prosperity. Editor Calmes with such support will have on of the best country weeklies in the State. A live newspaper makes a good town and it takes advertising to make a good paper.—Caldwell County News.

OUR MERCHANTS DRAW TRADE TWENTY-FIVE MILES.

J. M. Polk, of near Dycusburg, was in Marion Thursday and while here bought a Studebaker wagon of T. H. Cochran & Co., and some nice furniture of Nunn & Tucker. His brother E. E. Polk, accompanied him who bought a nice two horse, Geo. Delker buggy of T. H. Cochran & Co. As these gentlemen came 25 miles to do their trading it is surely evidence that the man who keeps the goods and advertises them is the man that gets the business.

Delightfully Entertained.

One of the most delightful social affairs of the season was given by Mrs. Mollie Dulaney and Mrs. Kelley Landes Tuesday evening at their charming home in Fredonia, Ky., in honor of Mr. Clayborne Rice, of Seattle, Wash., who has been visiting relatives here for the past month. The spacious living room that has been the scene of so many happy occasions for the young people was filled with a more joyous company, with a perfect floor and excellent music by a three piece band, and at the late hour of 1:30 the sweet strains of "Home Sweet Home" was played and encored several times by the gay crowd, and as the last notes died away, Mr. Robert Scott, of Dycusburg, caught up the air at the piano and once more the sad sweet waltz was danced again.

In the dining room a most delicious punch had been served throughout the evening from Mrs. Dulaney's famous Isaac Walton bowl. There the guests repaired for a last cooling draught and with many expressions of appreciation of the delightful evening, took leave of their agreeable hostesses.

Those present were:—Misses Mary D. and Ida Turley, Mary Louise Myers and Dr. R. H. Moore, of Crider; Misses Nancy Helm, Pauline Hutchinson, Gladys Wilson, and Mr. Wiburn Ray, of Auburn; Miss Mary Wyatt, Messrs. Guy and Howard Rice, Compton Moore, and John Hughes, of Fredonia; Mr. Clay Rice, of Seattle, Wash.; and Messrs. Robert Scott and Charlie Casidy, of Dycusburg.

DISTINCTION AND STYLE

We have been successful because we have a style and distinction to our printing that the ordinary man didn't have the talent or inclination to give. We have cut out for ourselves and individuality--a style.

You have the same thing; you have individuality. It sticks out; when a person hears something you have said, he says, "That sounds like Brown." It's the same way with your printing. Does it impress with a distinction or style? If not you should telephone or write to County Court.

Monday was county court day and it proved a busy one for August. The crowd consisted of the farmers from all portions of Crittenden, with a number from Union, Caldwell, Webster and Livingston counties. The order of business the convening of the county court, with Judge Blackburn on the bench, of land sales by Commissioner Rochester, of horse and mule sales, horse trading, watermelon selling, preaching in the court house yard and, for so large a crowd, was the most peaceable one we ever saw. It proved to be a great day for our merchants, especially our advertisers. We will give the records of the court Friday.

MAJESTIC DEMONSTRATION

WEEK BEGINNING AUGUST 9TH, 1909

And closing
SATURDAY, AUGUST 14TH, 1909

FREE

THE GREAT AND GRAND MAJESTIC RANGE

THE RANGE WITH A REPUTATION MADE IN ALL SIZES AND STYLES.

SOUVENIR FREE

Set of Majestic Ware

If you call at our store during our Majestic Demonstration Week and allow us to show you the many advantages and superior qualities of the Great and Majestic Range, and will purchase one at the regular price, we will give FREE the beautiful and useful Souvenir Set of Ware illustrated in this advertisement. This ware is made to match the quality of the Majestic Ranges, and we know all ladies will see the beauty and utility of this Set, especially the first three pieces, which are entirely new and cannot be had alone by purchase, except at a very high price. The prices of Majestic Ranges are the same, but we give the set FREE with each Majestic Range BOUGHT DURING DEMONSTRATION WEEK ONLY

REASONS WHY THE GREAT MAJESTIC YOU SHOULD BUY

- 1st. It has the reputation of being the best Range money can buy.
- 2nd It not only has the reputation, but is the best range made, and we will prove this to you if you will let us.
- 3rd It is constructed of Malleable iron, material you can't beat, and of Charcoal Iron--material that resists rust 300 per cent. greater than steel-, is riveted together air-tight No heat escapes or cold air enters rangethus uses very little fuel to do perfect work.
- 4th The reservoir alone is worth the price of the range over any other reservoir made. It boils 15 gallons of water; is heated like a tea-kettle, with pocket against left-hand lining, and is movable and sets on a frame, hence cannot wear out. When water gets too hot it can be moved away from fire.

Majestic Ranges use less fuel; heat more water--and heat it hotter; costs practically nothing for repairs; last three times as long; bake better; easier to keep clean and gives better satisfaction than any other range on the market. If you knew positively that the above statements were true, wouldn't you buy a Majestic at once? Come In During Demonstration week and we will prove it to you:
